Homeownership is a big goal. Achieving it takes time, support and faith in yourself. Many of us question if we’ll ever become a homeowner. Don’t fall for the myths that can stop you from trying.

Homeownership is within your reach. The path and time it takes is different for everyone, but with patience and persistence, you can lay a foundation of building assets and success for you and your family!

DO I MAKE ENOUGH MONEY?

ANSWER: Depending on where you want to live, homeownership may be more affordable than paying rent.

- Owning compared with renting provides an opportunity to build equity and wealth.

Remember: You don’t have to do this on your own! In addition to getting support from trusted advisors and moral support from your family and friends, the Homeownership Opportunity Alliance includes nonprofit partners that can guide you through these and many other questions on your path to homeownership. Get Ready. Be Ready! We’ll help!

Depending on the price of the home and your downpayment, a mortgage might even be less than your rent!
